

developments of Kinston and Lenoir County. A county recreation program is necessary to relieve some intensity of use of present city facilities or the City of Kinston may eventually be put into a position of providing recreation for the entire county.